Deep Learning in Games

Date and time: Thursday 21/03/2019 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Venue: Ke 2.202, Deakin, Waurin ponds

Speaker: Masoud Abdi

Abstract

Masoud is a PhD candidate at Institute for Intelligent System Research and Innovation (IISRI) at Deakin University. His research interests include Machine Learning, Deep Learning and Computer Vision. During his PhD, he tackled the problem of image classification on natural images as well as 3d hand pose estimation using depth images.

He will be presenting an introductory session on deep learning and state-of-the-art methods in image recognition.
